NOTES

Appropriate Period

Appropriate period means the period to be covered when giving particulars of declarable interests. For a first declaration appropriate period means the period of 12 months leading up to and including the day the annual declaration form is signed by you. In relation to subsequent declarations it is the period between the date of your previous declaration and the date of the next declaration.

Non Declaration of Amount(s)

The amount or monetary value of any declarable interest need not be specified. (Section 171(5)) of the Act).

Land

ⁱ "land" includes all property including buildings, dwellings, etc.. All land interests in the State should be declared.

Company

ⁱⁱ Where any body which is a company within the meaning of section 155 of the Companies Act, 1963 is deemed under that section to be a subsidiary of another or to be another such company's holding company, a person who is a member of the first-mentioned such company is deemed also to be a member of the other company for the purposes of annual declaration. (Section 166(3) of the Act).

Non-declaration of certain land interests

ⁱⁱⁱ An interest in land or an interest relating to land or any business of dealing in or developing land does not have to be declared where such interest is by reason only of the beneficial ownership of shares in a company or other body by you or by your nominee and the total nominal value of those shares does not exceed the lesser of €12,697.38, or $1/100^{\text{th}}$ part of the total nominal value of either the issued share capital of the company or body or, where that capital is issued in shares of more than one class, the issued share capital of the class or classes of shares in which you have an interest. Section 167(3) of Act refers.

Declarable Interest no. 4

iv See note iii above.

Holding (shares etc.)

v "holding" does not include money in a current, deposit or other similar account with a financial institution (see declarable interest no. 5).

Shadow Directorship

vi "shadow directorship" means the position held by a person who is a shadow director for the purposes of the Companies Acts, 1963 to 1999. (see declarable interest no. 6).

Declarable Interest no. 7

vii Insofar as services at (2) of declarable interest no. 7 relate to legal or medical services, it is only necessary to state that such services were supplied.

NOTES

Appropriate Period

Appropriate period means the period to be covered when giving particulars of declarable interests. For a first declaration appropriate period means the period of 12 months leading up to and including the day the annual declaration form is signed by you. In relation to subsequent declarations it is the period between the date of your previous declaration and the date of the next declaration.

Non Declaration of Amount(s)

The amount or monetary value of any declarable interest need not be specified. (Section 171(5)) of the Act).

Land

i "land" includes all property including buildings, dwellings, etc.. All land interests in the State should be declared.

Company

ii Where any body which is a company within the meaning of section 155 of the Companies Act, 1963 is deemed under that section to be a subsidiary of another or to be another such company's holding company, a person who is a member of the first-mentioned such company is deemed also to be a member of the other company for the purposes of annual declaration. (Section 166(3) of the Act).

Non-declaration of certain land interests

iii An interest in land or an interest relating to land or any business of dealing in or developing land does not have to be declared where such interest is by reason only of the beneficial ownership of shares in a company or other body by you or by your nominee and the total nominal value of those shares does not exceed the lesser of €12,697.38, or $\frac{1}{100}$ th part of the total nominal value of either the issued share capital of the company or body or, where that capital is issued in shares of more than one class, the issued share capital of the class or classes of shares in which you have an interest. Section 167(3) of Act refers.

Declarable Interest no. 4

NOTES

Appropriate Period

Appropriate period means the period to be covered when giving particulars of declarable interests. For a first declaration appropriate period means the period of 12 months leading up to and including the day the annual declaration form is signed by you. In relation to subsequent declarations it is the period between the date of your previous declaration and the date of the next declaration.

Non Declaration of Amount(s)

The amount or monetary value of any declarable interest need not be specified. (Section 171(5)) of the Act).

Land

¹ "land" includes all property including buildings, dwellings, etc.. All land interests in the State should be declared.

Company

² Where any body which is a company within the meaning of section 155 of the Companies Act, 1963 is deemed under that section to be a subsidiary of another or to be another such company's holding company, a person who is a member of the first-mentioned such company is deemed also to be a member of the other company for the purposes of annual declaration. (Section 166(3) of the Act).

Non-declaration of certain land interests

³ An interest in land or an interest relating to land or any business of dealing in or developing land does not have to be declared where such interest is by reason only of the beneficial ownership of shares in a company or other body by you or by your nominee and the total nominal value of those shares does not exceed the lesser of €12,697.38, or $1/100^{\text{th}}$ part of the total nominal value of either the issued share capital of the company or body or, where that capital is issued in shares of more than one class, the issued share capital of the class or classes of shares in which you have an interest. Section 167(3) of Act refers.

⁴ See note iii above.

Holding (shares etc.)

⁵ "holding" does not include money in a current, deposit or other similar account with a financial institution (see declarable interest no. 5).

NOTES

Appropriate Period

Appropriate period means the period to be covered when giving particulars of declarable interests. For a first declaration appropriate period means the period of 12 months leading up to and including the day the annual declaration form is signed by you. In relation to subsequent declarations it is the period between the date of your previous declaration and the date of the next declaration.

Non Declaration of Amount(s)

The amount or monetary value of any declarable interest need not be specified. (Section 171(5)) of the Act).

Land

¹ "land" includes all property including buildings, dwellings, etc.. All land interests in the State should be declared.

Company

² Where any body which is a company within the meaning of section 155 of the Companies Act, 1963 is deemed under that section to be a subsidiary of another or to be another such company's holding company, a person who is a member of the first-mentioned such company is deemed also to be a member of the other company for the purposes of annual declaration. (Section 166(3) of the Act).

Non-declaration of certain land interests

³ An interest in land or an interest relating to land or any business of dealing in or developing land does not have to be declared where such interest is by reason only of the beneficial ownership of shares in a company or other body by you or by your nominee and the total nominal value of those shares does not exceed the lesser of €12,697.38, or $\frac{1}{100}$ th part of the total nominal value of either the issued share capital of the company or body or, where that capital is issued in shares of more than one class, the issued share capital of the class or classes of shares in which you have an interest. Section 167(3) of Act refers.

⁴ See note iii above.

Holding (shares etc.)

⁵ "holding" does not include money in a current, deposit or other similar account with a financial institution (see declarable interest no. 5).

NOTES

Appropriate Period

Appropriate period means the period to be covered when giving particulars of declarable interests. For a first declaration appropriate period means the period of 12 months leading up to and including the day the annual declaration form is signed by you. In relation to subsequent declarations it is the period between the date of your previous declaration and the date of the next declaration.

Non Declaration of Amount(s)

The amount or monetary value of any declarable interest need not be specified. (Section 171(5)) of the Act).

Land

ⁱ "land" includes all property including buildings, dwellings, etc.. All land interests in the State should be declared.

Company

ⁱⁱ Where any body which is a company within the meaning of section 155 of the Companies Act, 1963 is deemed under that section to be a subsidiary of another or to be another such company's holding company, a person who is a member of the first-mentioned such company is deemed also to be a member of the other company for the purposes of annual declaration. (Section 166(3) of the Act).

Non-declaration of certain land interests

ⁱⁱⁱ An interest in land or an interest relating to land or any business of dealing in or developing land does not have to be declared where such interest is by reason only of the beneficial ownership of shares in a company or other body by you or by your nominee and the total nominal value of those shares does not exceed the lesser of €12,697.38, or $\frac{1}{100}$ th part of the total nominal value of either the issued share capital of the company or body or, where that capital is issued in shares of more than one class, the issued share capital of the class or classes of shares in which you have an interest. Section 167(3) of Act refers.

Declarable Interest no. 4

^{iv} See note iii above.

Holding (shares etc.)

^v "holding" does not include money in a current, deposit or other similar account with a financial institution (see declarable interest no. 5).

Shadow Directorship

^{vi} "shadow directorship" means the position held by a person who is a shadow director for the purposes of the Companies Acts, 1963 to 1999. (see declarable interest no. 6).

Declarable Interest no. 7

^{vii} Insofar as services at (2) of declarable interest no. 7 relate to legal or medical services, it is only necessary to state that such services were supplied.
