"That Carlow Municipal District writes to the Taoiseach to call on him to justify the blanket ban on live music in outdoor bars and restaurants. This Municipal District also calls on the Taoiseach to amend the Music and Entertainment Business Assistance Scheme to make it more accessible for small-time musicians who don't have costs of €3,000."

4.2 Standing in the name of Cllr. Adrienne Wallace

"That this Carlow Municipal District writes to Minister for Health Stephen Donnelly to demand the Department of Health meet with the Irish Dental Association to modify the Dental Treatment Services Scheme (DTSS). This scheme enables private dentists to treat medical card holders but the number of dentists offering these services has dropped by 16%, from 1,654 to 1,393 over the past 10 months. The elderly, poor and disabled are being unfairly affected and the downward trend looks set to continue unless immediate action is taken."
