Item No. 7: Infrastructural Services

Ray Wickham, Senior Executive Engineer gave a brief update on the Roadworks Programme for 2017 and advised that surface dressing was almost complete. He advised that he would be meeting applicants regarding the Community Involvement Scheme in the coming week. Members also discussed overgrown trees blocking street lights and tree planting in urban areas. Ray Wickham advised that he had spoken to ESB and they have prioritised Bagenalstown for tree pruning.

Item No. 8: Planning

None

Item No. 9: Housing

Lilly Slye, Senior Executive Engineer advised the Members that the Construction Programme for 2017 was well underway. Permission was sought to go for Part VIII planning permission for the following:

1. Rural house at Ballymoon, Bagenalstown
2. Rural house at Crowsgrove, Kildavin
3. 6 houses at Ardattin
4. 4 houses at Poundlane

This was proposed by Cllr. Arthur McDonald and seconded by Cllr. Willie Quinn that same go for Part VIII Planning Permission.

It was decided that the new housing development in Gleann na Bearu would be named as an extension of the existing development.

Item No. 10: Any Other Business

Members expressed concerns regarding the lack of attendance of Planning and Community staff to the meeting.

The issue of rates in County Carlow was discussed and Members were advised that people had 40 days to appeal same.

This concluded the business of the meeting.
